NO NAME

WELCOME BACK

Hi and welcome to the first issue of No Name this year. We're all really excited about getting back to writing for you guys and we hope you're all equally as excited to read these!

HAZING

On Monday (17th September 2018) there was a hazing in our school. First grades took part in a competition about Stefan Banach high school and I can say that their knowledge was excellent! After that, every class faced a challenge to present a scene from the Polish series using some hilarious texts and behaviour. They had a lot of ideas and every show was really different. That made every class so original! One of their tasks was to show a poster that was promoting their class. There was a lot of laughing during the hazing. At last 1D won with their interpretation of Ojciec Mateusz. We would like to thank every single class for their engagement and congratulate winners. See you next year with new students!

ART, TALENT OR HARD WORK?

When it comes to art, you are probably thinking by looking at some modern paintings that there are no skills behind it, we could do that kind of scribbles by ourselves, and you are right, at least partly. See when a lot of modern art is indeed made with no thoughts behind it, there are some with deep meaning and emotions converter through a canvas or its just art critic over analyzing a giving meaning to the concept that has none of it, being so confident that the piece is marvelous, he might actually convince some more people that its a fact, when the painter probably doesn't really know what he painted himself.

PHILIP ANTHONY HOPKINS

BORN DECEMBER 31, 1937 IN PORT TALBOT

AN AMERICAN THEATER AND FILM ACTOR FROM GREAT BRITAIN, ALSO A COMPOSER AND PAINTER.

He is considered one of the most outstanding contemporary actors who can play roles in a wide range of film and theater genres. In his youth, he was greatly influenced by Richard Burton, whom he met personally when he was 15 years old. According to critics, both actors' characters were very similar both physically, in terms of temperament and the style of acting. Initially, his acting career was based solely on theater roles. Later he focused on film acting.

He pursued his acting in parallel with his musical interests. It is the composer of the waltz, which was premiered in Vienna by André Rieu and his orchestra for the first time only 50 years after composing the piece. He was a composer of music for his own movie August in 1996. In the period of his later film career, he developed his interest in painting. Mainly his landscapes are presented in galleries, among others in the USA and Great Britain.

His most famous film role was the character of Hannibal Lecter in the film The Silence of the Sheep, for which he won the 1992 Academy Award of the American Film Academy for the best male role. He also played in the sequel to Hannibal (2001) and in the Red Dragon prequel (2002).

He has lived in the United States, and since 2000 has citizenship of this country. He was married three times. In 2002, he ended his 29-year marriage with Jennifer Lynton and got married in 2003 with Stella Arroyave.

He actively participates in many charities and organizations. Many of them are related to ecology. He is a co-founder of the foundation dealing with nature conservation. He was the President of the National Trust and made great contributions to the development of Snowdonia National Park. Takes part in television campaigns to stop the capture of whales by Japanese fishermen.

HALLOWEEN

Halloween is coming!

The American holiday is fast approaching with great strides.

Halloween is a celebration on the night of October 31.

It's the most known in the United States and Canada but in Poland, children have adopted it with joy.

This day, children wear scary costumes, masks and makeup.

The most known characters to be are the Frankensteins, witches, pirates and ghosts. They go to people's homes saying "Trick or treat!" to ask for sweets and they get them.

If someone chooses the trick, he or she must expect really scary jokes.

If you are an adult and you do not want to collect candy, a good option is going to the cinema for some scary movies.

This fall, the best horror films of all times are released in the Polish cinemas. They will play "Hellfest" (12.10), "Halloween" (26.10) and "Suspiria" (2.02).

So go for it! Take part and enjoy!!!

It's no secret that Princess Diana is a symbol of the British royal family. She changed the image of a princess from someone haughty and unattainable to someone who is just like us.

She would constantly break the royal protocol, for example she'd never wear gloves, because she valued direct contact with people she visited. She wouldn't wear hats either, because as she said, "You can't cuddle a child in a hat."

Pretty much everyone who remembers Princess Diana associates her name with kindness. Of course, she wasn't the only one who did humanitarian work, but she was the only one who did it with extreme sincerity.

Speaking of charity work: she worked with organizations to help homeless youth, wanted to change the public's perception of HIV/AIDS (She famously said: "HIV does not make people dangerous to know. You can shake their hands and give them a hug, heaven knows they need it."), brought attention to Angola's landmines, made regular personal visits to London's homeless centers and hospitals and so the list goes on! That's why everyone called her "The People's Princess".

To me personally, Princess Diana is an extreme inspiration. Her altruism and sincerity are truly remarkable. Not only did she teach people to be kind and understanding but she also showed us to not be afraid to break the rules sometimes, to just listen to our hearts and do what it tells us is right.
